OCTOBER 2019

SHILOH TERRACE BAPTIST CHURCH

Dear Church Family...

Craig Christina
Senior Pastor

You have often heard me say, "The best years for Shiloh Terrace lie ahead." But why? Why do I know that statement is true? First, because of our great and glorious God. Read Psalm 24. David reminds us five times in ten verses that God is "the King of glory." He says the Lord is our "Savior," "strong," "mighty in battle," and "Almighty." Finally, David affirms the Lord fights for us, blesses us, and vindicates us. Our best days lie ahead because of who God is.

But also, that statement is true because of who you are. Whom does the Lord bless? David says God blesses those who worship Him and seek His face with "clean hands and a pure heart." In other words, those who set themselves apart to follow, worship, and serve the Lord. As long as we continue to focus on loving, growing, serving, and sharing, God will absolutely bless His church to produce more fruit and draw more people to Him.

So what should we do? David says, "Lift up your heads, gates, and doors, that the King of glory may come in." The correct posture is always to look up, stay focused on the Lord, seek His face, and God will continue to bless Shiloh Terrace for years to come.

Our world constantly changes. But the way forward is never to look down or look back. It is to look up. For God has great and awesome plans for His people if we continue to look up and follow Him.

Your servant in Christ,
Pastor Craig
